Original motion to grant American naturalized citizenship
Of John Koo-Hyun Kim and Sejun Kim as of April 20, 1993. Now come John Koo-Hyun Kim and Sejun Kim, plaintiffs self-representing, request that this honorable court to grant our honorable American naturalized citizenship of John Koo-Hyun Kim and Sejun Kim as of April 20, 1993 since government had no reason to deny it until today after we applied for it on April 20, 1988 and government granted it on April 20, 1988.

Jurisdiction

Sejun Kim (A 91 272 367 / A 75 887 588) whose date of birth was on October 27, 1979 and John Koo-Hyun Kim (A 91 272 364 / A 75 887 591) whose date of birth was on August 26, 1941 came to America in 1981 whose entry paper proved so.

Since our entry date of 1981, my entire family applied for our legalization to become American citizens after American government begged us to apply for it.

On April 20, 1988, Government INS approved all of my entire family legalizations and reviewed three times and approved it for the third time on March 1, 1989 for my daughter and for my wife who had already become U.

S. citizens whose application information and application date were the same with my application and my son's application on the same date on April 20, 1988.

But the INS still denied my and my son's citizenship. Let government explain their denial reason. Otherwise this honorable court should grant American citizenship as of April 20, 1993.

This honorable court had no cause to deny jurisdiction to review this case or deny American citizenship claim as of April 20, 1993 right away or as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
